When do new transactions become available for review?

The job flagging the document lines selected for Financial Review runs for the previous month after the Monthly Settlements are run and it is recorded in SAP via transaction ZGLU (generally the 4th or 5th business day of the month). Transactions are then extracted and loaded into the warehouse on the next day, and made available in the FRC application.

Return to Financial Review and Control (FRC) Application FAQ