

Selecting Accessible Colors for Websites and Documents

Selecting Accessible Colors for Websites and Documents

Q: How do I select accessible colors for my websites and documents?

Answer

Accessible colors are those that provide an adequate amount of contrast between the background and foreground, or text, color. IS&T has developed a learning module containing two lessons that explain more about color contrast and how to use the Paciello Group's Color Contrast Analyser to select accessible colors.

Visit the Color Accessibility Learning Module