Can I include a Googlemap in the MIT Wiki?

Q: Can I include a Googlemap in the MIT Wiki?

Answer

Yes. The confluence Wiki includes a powerful plug-in gmap. The plug-in allows you to include a map and use parameters to modify the map. For example you can choose to add a marker at a particular location and include some information which could become visible when you click the marker.

Further information may be found at:
http://confluence.atlassian.com/display/CONFEXT/Google+Maps+Plugin

See Also

- Wikis Landing Page