

Can I get ISDN service if my local telephone office doesn't have it?

Q: Can I get ISDN service if my local telephone office doesn't have it?

Answer

Yes. If there is an ISDN office within 100 miles then the service can be provided by using a BRITE (basic rate interface terminal extender) circuit.