How do I change my operating system's default application for opening PDFs?

Q: How do I change my operating system's default application for opening PDFs?

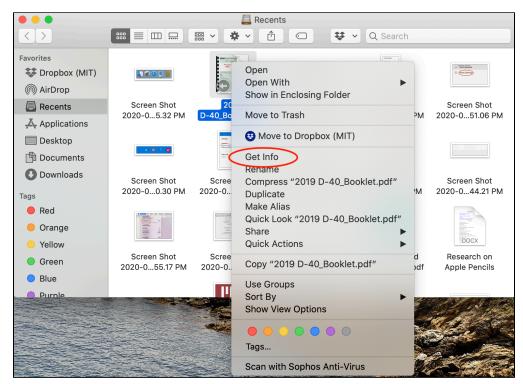

Answer

To set a PDF viewer as the default on Mac OS X:

1. Select any PDF file from Finder. Control-click to open the menu. Result: A menu will open next to the file name.

2. Choose Get Info from the menu that opens. Result: A new window will open with information on that PDF file.

3. From the Open with: section in the new window that opens, select your preferred application, such as Adobe Reader or Preview. Result: That application will be selected.
