Where do Caller ID names come from?

Where do Caller ID names come from?

Name to phone number mappings come out of the MIT on-line directory. If the wrong name shows up, it can usually be corrected through Atlas. Caller ID info for group/office lines are set up by Telephony CSR's and changes can be requested through them.