

Fan Noise in Zoom Calls

Fan Noise in Zoom Calls

In some laptops the internal microphone and fan are close to one another causing the sound of the fan to be heard by the microphone during Zoom Calls.

You can adjust the Suppress Background Noise settings to High to be able to block out the fan noise and continue using the internal microphone

Zoom Preferences > Audio > Suppress Background Noise > change from Auto to High