Where can I obtain support using Stata (statistical package)?

The following are good places to refer to with questions about Stata:

- Stata on the Software Grid
- The MIT libraries offer links to tutorials on using Stata, SPSS, R, and other common statistical packages: http://libguides.mit.edu/stat.
- Stata's own resource page http://www.stata.com/links/resources.html
- stata-list is a popular e-mail discussion group for asking questions and sharing information about Stata: http://www.stata.com/statalist/archive/
- More good resources from Stata's manufacturer: http://www.stata.com/links/resources3.html
