

I have an Institute-owned machine being used for research at an off-site location. Is it legal for me to install Windows on that machine?

Q: I have an Institute-owned machine being used for research at an off-site location. Is it legal for me to install Windows on that machine?

Answer

Yes. As long as it is an Institute-owned machine being used for Institute business/research.

See Also

- Windows Landing Page